the limited funds at its command and with the assistance of church authorities, like Archbishop O'Dougherty of the Catholic Diocese of Manila, these young orphans are being properly trained.